

Georgia Public Service Commission is accepting applications for Utility/Financial Analyst

Number of Openings: 2

Job Category: Utility/Financial Analyst, Accounting,

Regulation Salary: $55,000-$67,000 Commensurate

w/experience Closing Date: Until filled

Primary Location: GA-Fulton-Atlanta

Job Description:

Under general supervision, the successful Natural Gas Candidate in the Financial Analyst role will perform regulatory compliance work of considerable difficulty as a member of the Natural Gas Unit.

Excellent Benefits:

- 401(k) with matching
- Defined Benefit Plan (pension)
- Employer qualified for Student Loan Forgiveness program
- Health Insurance
- Dental and Vision Insurance
- Employee Discounts
- Flexible Schedule
- Health Savings Account
- Life Insurance
- Vacation Leave – three weeks annually that rolls over
- Sick Leave – three weeks annually that rolls over
- 13 Paid Holidays
- Professional development assistance

Duties and Responsibilities/Technical Skills:

- Conduct independent analyses on a wide range of financial matters. This will include, but is not limited to, the review and analyses of financial statements and capital budgets, with the application of accounting principles,
- Analyze trends and variances on marketers' financial data, customer data and market share of the deregulated market
- Review and analyze affiliate transaction data
- Perform audits of company's records
- Analyze the financial health of the certificated marketers and their parent companies

- Review and analyze financial data of the regulated utilities.
- Learn the natural gas marketer application process and the ongoing review of gas marketer financial and technical capability.
- Possess Strong Excel skills in order to understand and maneuver and analyze complex financial models.
- Develop a good working knowledge of the natural gas industry, and the legislation, rules and regulations that govern such.
- Possess critical thinking and analytical skills utilizing accounting/financial knowledge.
- Develop an understanding of natural gas regulatory practices and standards related to accounting, finance, and economics analyses.
- Ability to function both as a project leader and team member and make independent assessments.
- Strong verbal and written communication skills. Able to present recommendations and respond to questions in a public forum.

Minimum Qualifications:

Bachelor's degree in accounting or finance from an accredited college or university. Intermediate or above skills in Excel, Word, Outlook, and PowerPoint. Excellent oral, written, and presentation are essential skills.

Background Check: Must successfully complete background investigation.

To Apply:

Apply online at www.psc.ga.gov

Candidates selected for further consideration will be required to submit the following:

Georgia Public Service Commission Employment Application
 State of Georgia Employment Application
 College or University Transcripts
 Writing Sample